The year 2020 marks the centennial of the passage of the 19th Amendment in the United States, which granted women the right to vote. In honor of this historic anniversary, the Charles M. Schulz Museum and Research Center celebrates the leading lady of Peanuts, Lucy Van Pelt. From her earliest moments as #1 fussybudget in the early 1950s to the empowered young lady who embodied the movement toward equality in the 1960s, 1970s, and beyond, there is no mistaking Lucy.
