The Gurkha's Daughter is a collection of eight short stories of the Nepali speaking diaspora in India, Bhutan, Nepal and Manhattan. My knowledge is limited pertaining to the Nepali speaking diaspora, however, the collection seems to touch upon plausible challenges faced by the Nepalese.

The Gurkha's Daughter: Stories by Prajwal Parajuly

The titular story, The Gurkha's daughter depicts the friendship shared by the narrator and Gita, whose fathers are part of the British Army. As they mimic their fathers and don fake moustaches, they reveal the post-imperial status of these soldiers. The narrator hoards secrets created out of innocent mischief and guards those of others.
